Re: OLRB File #1115-04-U
Dana Horochowski vs OECTA and
York Catholic District School Board

Dear Vice Chair Anderson;

This woman appears to be functioning well within her home environment and living currently with her parents in Sault Ste. Marie. She is not a danger to herself or anyone else and appears to be competent as a teacher and internet researcher. She does not have any serious mental illness. She has some major concerns that suppression of information may exist within the school curriculum and this is considered by her to be unprofessional of the school boards and teachers involved. That issue is for the court of law to resolve. I find her capable of living freely independent of any need for medication or supervision.

Sincerely,

Dr. Ci. K. Macmichael
